Belief in Inclusion
Segment 2: Practical Ways to Help Include Others

1. Asking questions can help you to be inclusive of others
   A. True
   B. False

2. It is best to ask yes or no questions
   A. True
   B. False

3. It is okay to debate others’ beliefs when you are asking them respectful questions
   A. True
   B. False

4. What are some respectful questions you could ask people with different beliefs?

____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________________________