Belief in Inclusion
Segment 3: Institutional Inclusion

1. Title X is the name of the Civil Rights Act that discusses religious discrimination and accommodations in the workplace
   A. True
   B. False

2. If there is a problem of religious discrimination in the office, an employee should speak with administration about the matter
   A. True
   B. False

3. Muslim women who wear Hijabs undergo the most discrimination in the workplace
   A. True
   B. False

4. What can you do at your work or school to help it be more institutionally inclusive?

___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________