Belief in Inclusion
Final Quiz

1. The first step to inclusivity is...
   A. Open-Mindedness
   B. Open-Heartedness
   C. Asking Questions
   D. A & B

2. When asking respectful questions do NOT...
   A. Have a goal of learning
   B. Debate others’ beliefs
   C. Ask open ended questions
   D. Keep an open mind

3. Inclusion is...
   A. Not important
   B. Laws about equal opportunity employment
   C. A feeling of belonging
   D. A bad feeling

4. Exclusion is...
   A. An instinct we are born with
   B. Not a big deal
   C. A skill that is developed as we grow
   D. A good feeling

5. When including others, a simple thing to remember is...
   A. Some religions have restrictions on touch
   B. Some religions have dietary restrictions
   C. There are no simple things to remember, inclusion is complicated
   D. A & B
6. If you see religious discrimination in your work place, you should...
   A. Talk to your employer or school administration
   B. Punch the person being discriminatory in the nose
   C. Tell your co-workers or classmates that the person being discriminatory is a jerk
   D. Ignore it

7. Ideally, your workplace or school should provide...
   A. A flexible schedule for holiday observances
   B. A designated space for religious observances
   C. A dress code that welcomes headscarves and other religious dress
   D. All of the above

8. Which item was NOT mentioned when discussing dietary restrictions of various religions?
   A. Bread
   B. Meat
   C. Alcohol
   D. Caffeine

9. In order for people to actually experience religious freedom they need to...
   A. Live in the United States of America
   B. Be able to practice their religion without discrimination or barriers
   C. Simply have laws about inclusivity
   D. Hide their religious beliefs

10. You should share this training with...
    A. Your classmates
    B. Your co-workers
    C. Your teacher/boss
    D. All of the above